- a. What food policy shifts have you seen recently that indicate we are headed toward a cleaner, more humane, and equitable food system?
- b. What are some actions you can take as a consumer to help shift our food system to a cleaner, more humane, and equitable system?
- c. One way to create a cleaner, more humane, and equitable food system is by being transparent about what goes into our food and how it is raised/grown. What are some actions that can be taken by corporations, Congress, or consumers that ensure labels are not misleading or false?
- d. What actions can you take to inform yourself and others about the practices of our current food system?
